French bumper winner GANAPATHI will likely be tough to beat now setting out for new trainer Willie Mullins. Barney Stinson made a promising start to his career when second over C&D at the start of the month and is the obvious one to give the selection most to think about unless the betting speaks in the favour of Henry de Bromhead newcomer Oryx Hustler.

TIMEFORM VIEW:
YOU SAY NOTHING looked likely to win when falling two out at Fairyhouse last time so there's every chance he can take this off only 2 lb higher, particularly with further progress likely. Arctic Light came down when well backed over fences in August and will be a threat if the money comes again now back hurdling. Karawaan's Flat ability provides him with the potential for better in handicaps.

NO MEMORY had a bit spare when landing a minor event at Wexford last month and has the scope for further progress, so gets the marginal vote in a race where plenty can have a case made for them. In-form duo Southerner and Owenacurra Lass can give the selection most to think about.
